 - (a) The Subscribers shall be Members; and
 - (b) Every Owner shall be a Member so long as that person is an Owner, and shall immediately cease to be a Member if at any time they cease to be an Owner.

PART 3: MEETINGS OF MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

- (c) appoint such auditors or accountants as may be desired;
- (d) elect as many Directors as shall be required to fill the vacancies of the Board; and
- (e) transact such other business as may be put before the meeting.

3.4 A quorum for the Annual General Meeting shall be the attendance of ten (10) or more Members collectively entitled to cast ten (10) or more votes excepting the first Annual General Meeting which shall only require a quorum of five (5) Members.

3.5 Unless two Members or more demand a ballot vote, all voting at the Annual General Meeting shall be done by a show of hands.

3.6 Excepting in respect of co-owners as set out in paragraph 5.7 hereof, no Member may vote by proxy.

3.9 If the circumstances require, any meeting of the Association, the Board or any other meeting to be called pursuant to the Bylaws, including a special meeting, may be held entirely or partially by electronic means in accordance with the Act, in which case voting may be done via an online poll if so determined by the person presiding at the meeting.

- 5.4 At every Annual General Meeting every question shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands, unless before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a ballot be demanded by at least two (2) Members personally present and entitled to vote. A declaration by the person presiding that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority, or lost, shall be conclusive evidence thereof, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against any such resolution (including if the voting is done via an online poll). If a ballot be demanded in the manner above mentioned, it shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner as the person presiding may direct, and the result of the ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the ballot was demanded. A demand for a ballot may be withdrawn.
- 5.5 In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of any vote, the person presiding shall determine the same, and such determination made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.
- 5.6 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Bylaws a resolution assented to and adopted in writing under the hands of fifty-one (51%) percent of all the Members entitled to vote thereon, though not passed at an Annual General Meeting, shall be of the same force and effect as if it had been duly passed at an Annual General Meeting duly convened, and no previous notice, or convening of any meeting for the purpose of passing such resolution shall in such case be deemed to have been necessary, whether the business transacted thereat is special or not, and a Member may signify his assent to such resolution in writing under his hand or by letter or facsimile or e-mail, and such resolutions shall be deemed to have been passed on any date therein stated to be the effective date thereof.
- 5.7 One of any co-owners may vote by proxy appointed by them, and in the absence of such proxy are entitled to vote on a show of hands; but on any vote by ballot each co-owner is entitled to such part of the vote applicable to the Subdivided Lot they co-own as is proportionate to their interest in the Subdivided Lot.
